

Fourth Tuesday Program

"The Irrigation Crusade"

From the 1880s to the earliest days of the 20th century, the "Irrigation Crusade" was promoted as a way for grassland farmers and community boosters to continue thriving during droughts.

The presentation will focus on colorful Kansas frontiersman Charles "Buffalo" Jones and how he led the crusade in western Kansas by organizing water diversion projects to land in and around Garden City.

James Sherow teaches Kansas and environmental history at Kansas State University.

Humanities Kansas is sponsoring his presentation.
