TCHS presents programs on the Fourth Tuesday of every month (except June, July and December).

These program meetings are held in the Reno Methodist Church on the museum site at 201 W. Washington Street in Tonganoxie. The meetings begin at 7:00 pm and include a brief business meeting and an historical program.

All members of the community are welcome. There are refreshments after the program and there is never a charge.

Wade Davis, independent scholar, will use his background in living history and interpretation to talk about the Delaware Indians who lived in Tonganoxie on the Delaware Reservation prior to the founding the of the town of Tonganoxie.

He will talk about the day to day life of the Delaware, using historical objects and stories.
